THE FALLEN BROTHER.

od. We are not our own keepers. Who knows hen we shall so far forget ourselves as to put arrow gath. But if we should fall, where ild be the end of our course, if in every face -aw a frown, and on every brow we read rege? Deeper and deeper would we descend in path of infamy; when, if a different course opursued, and a different spirit were manifesttowards us, we migic have stayed our career sin, and died an upwright and honest man. Deal gently with those who stray. Draw them tek by love and persuation. A kiss is worth: sousand kicks. A kird word is more valuable to he lost than a mine of gold. Think of this, and e on your guard, ye who chase to the confines of the grave an erring brother .- Portland Tribune

HAPPINESS AND RICHES.

It cannot be too early or too deeply instilled into the minds of the joung and inexperienced, that the means and happiness of riches are, in a great degree, in every man's power. A blind belief in destiny or fortune acts as a powerful stimplus to incolence and infecision, and makes men sit down and fold their fiends in apathy. Nothing is more common in the world than for people to excuse their own indolence by referring the pros-perity of others to the capace of fortune. Successs every capricious man snows, is as generally a consequence of industry a mignod conduct, as disappointment is the content once of indolence and indecision. The difference in the progress which neets and opportunities, is a proof that more de-needs upon conduct than fortune; and if a roan, nstead of envying his neighbor's fortune, and desloring his own, should inquire what means he ms employed, or those lee has neglected, he would secure a result to his withes. But the great misfewer cander to execute, such a system of selfexamination. Thousands thus pass through life ingry with fate, when they ought to be angry with emselves-too fond of the enjoyment which riches procure, ever to be httppy without them; and too ndolent and unsteady, ever to pursue the legitimate means by which they are attainable.

A SABBATH ON LAST MICHGAN .- A correscondent of the New York Commercial writing to hat journal from the steamer Nile, while she sailed on the clear waters of Lake Michigan, TELMONY.—The following anecdote is related in a speaks of the Sunday service on board the steamr with a beauty of thought which characterizes a happy thinker and a true well-wisher of all "A baxom country girl in Ayrshire left the place where she had been at service, with the kind e inhabitants of Christendom. He says:

It was the Sabbath, and never did Sabbath morn break more beautiful. After breakfast the tables were cleared away and the cabin was fitted having the bump of caution large, she read of high up for church. At tenu clock the large bell was ring and telled in imitation of church bells, and the passengers assembled and listened to a very excellent sermon by the Rev. Mr. Stimson, of East Greenbush, N. Y. It was a novel and interesting incident of edd journey. There, gathered in the saloon of a then floating Bethel, were nearly four hundred people from almost every kindred, nation and tongue, who were never again to meet together this side of eternity, never again to listen to the voice that addressed them, and never to unite in the same song of praise or prayer. It was a soleign thought, and if the Persian monarch wept when he looked upon his had been passed on him, he took a survey of the court room, and gave vent to his feelings in the following manner:—" Well, this is the briskest army of a kundred thousand men and thought, in a hundred years they were all to lie beneath the sod, cold and lifeless, surely the Christian might weep when he gazed upon that assembly and remorning, stood an election, and unanimously voted flected that on that beautiful lake, floating like "Nonly and Pamily" above the world and shut-out from all things visible v it, were assem-bled a company listening to the words of eternallife, who were to meet again only at the call of

STOVES, STOVES.

HE subscriber most respectfully informs the public, that he keeps constantly on hand a general assortment of Parlor and Cooking Stoves, of the most approved patterns .-He is now manufacturing and receiving a splendid assortment of Air-tight Stores, for parlors and chambers. He has recently obtained a Patent for a Ventilating Air-tight Stove, which keeps up a constant circulation of air in the room, and when the Stove is closed up, the ventilator is opened at the same time, and the close, oppressive air passes off through the ventilator, and the same pleasant, healthy heat is produced as from a fire-place or open Stove. He is sole agent for Pierce's American Air-tight Cook Stove, the best offered in this market. There are five sizes, for coal or wood. House keepers and farmers should by all means examine this superior Cooking Stove. There is a great saving of fuel, and the aren possesses an advantage over almost any other kind of Stove now in use. It is very large, and the top being fire-brick, the moisture is abscribed during baking, and combines the advantages both of a Brick oven and a Cook Stove. He keeps, also, Air-tight Cooking Rangers, and a superior assortment of Grates for fire-places. Also puts up Furnaces for heating dwellings, banks, churches, stores, &c. S. B. SEXTON,

Valuable Jefferson Land for Sale.

THE subscriber being desirous of removing to the South, offers for sale his Valuable Landed Estate, ituated three miles North West of Charlestown, (the seat of Justice for Jefferson county, Va.,) within half a mile of the Winchester and Potomac Railroad, and the Smithfield and Harpers-Ferry Depot, on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, Containing 600 Acres.

The Impromements consist of a commodious BRICK DWELLING HOUSE, containing eleven rooms. The Outbuildings consist of a Smoke-house, Vegro Houses, Stabling, &c.

There is a great variety of TIVER BOLDED growing and yielding upon the Estate besides every variety of Ornamental Trees growing in the yard.

The Dwelling commands a beautiful view of he Blue Ridge and North Mountains, and is very healthy, but few cases of sickness having ever occurred, arising from its local situation. The land is of the best limestone. From its location,-being convenient to all the improvements, so that all he produce raised upon the farm can be easily conveyed to market at little expense,-this estate is one of the most desirable in the county. This land can be divided into two farms, giving both wood and water to each. The subscriber respectfully invites a call from those desirous of purchasing land, as he is prepared to accept a price that would make the purchase a valuable investment, even as a speculation, to any disposed to engage in such an enterprise. To a gentleman of fortune, who desires a country residence, an opportunity is now offered rarely to be met with.

ONEY TO BE SAVED! The proprietors of this preparation say without any hesitation, that it is the best article in use. It will not only keep harness bright and soft, but will restore old harness that has been taken poor care of, taking off the crust, and making it perfectly soft and liable. It adds to the wear of harness or leather at least 50 per cent. It is an article that comes cheap, and is worth its weight in silver.

MR. C. HERSTONS:—My infant baby for about six weeks from its birth was much afflicted with Cholic. The attacks were so often repeated, and the sufferings of the child so distressing, that as parents our feelings were sensibly alive on the occasion. We had tried many things but all failed until a friend on a visit recommended Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial. The first dose gave relief in a few minutes, the child from that period began recovering, and by occasionally using the cordial was perfectly re-SAMUEL URNER. stored to health.

Co., Md., September 17th, 1846. MR. C. HERSTONS:-Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspentic Cordial, recommended likewise for sick headache, and other diseases of the stomach, has proved of great benefit to me and my family. For eighteen months before taking this medicine, I suffered much from violent sick head-ache. Having frequently to ride on horseback to another mill, about four miles off in my employ, my head-ache on such occasions was very severe. But to the medicine:-I commenced taking it according to directions, the first two loses gave immediate relief-the attacks soon in became less frequent, and on an attentive use of the medicine has so far subsided; that I seldem have it for months together—it is pleasing to say properties.

MR. C. Herstons:—As a friend to the afflict-pa ed I feel it my duty to offer you my name as a tes-timony to the good effects of your Drs. Dresbach, tic Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial. Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial.

I have for the last two years been suffering his with what some call Liver Complaint, others, ac

Dyspepsia-be that as it may, I did not dare to it take a drink of cold water, or eat any thing but me very light diet, and even that at times would lay go on my stomach occasioning much misery. Dur. de ing this time I had taken many things recommend 6 ed, but none of them did any good. Happening to be a jurymaniat Frederick court one of the jury so had got a bottle—I asked him to let me try it, he P did so, and I found it was the very thing I wanted. I got it, commenced using it according to direct lti tions—to my gleat satisfaction after taking three doses of the cordial I was so fully satisfied of its C good effects, I continued the medicine until I had used several buttles—and can now say I am entirely relieved of this distressing complaint. My wife has likewise taken it, who has been also per-fectly restored. I believe this Dyspeptic Condition to be all that it is recommended to be. Yours respectfully,
